

NJARC Antique Radio Resource Guide

The New Jersey Antique Radio Club meets the second Friday of each month in Freehold, NJ, at the Grace Lutheran Church, located one block East of Route 9 on Main Street (Rt 537) at the corner of Park Avenue (Old Rt 33). There is a small Radio Swap Meet before and after the meetings which start promptly at 7:30 p.m. Every month there is a radio collecting presentation by one of our members. Everyone is welcome to attend and join. NJARC publishes a monthly news letter The New Jersey Broadcaster. NJARC's next radio swap meet will be July 31, 1999 in Heightstown, NJ.

The Antique Wireless Association is an organization of some 4,000 members linked by a common interest in the history of electrical and electronic communications. AWA members come from all walks of life and our ranks include teenagers, octogenarians, and beyond in both directions. At one of our meets, you might find yourself shaking hands with a retired broadcast executive or military electronics specialist, an engineer in a high-tech electronics firm, or an eager young man looking for advice on restoring his first radio. The Old Timers Bulletin, AWA's highly regarded journal, is published quarterly. AWA also sponsors the Radio Communication Museum in Bloomfield, NY, and the AWA annual conference held in Rochester, NY in September.
